The defendant was released in the Southern District of Texas by United States Magistrate Judge, Dena Hanovice Palermo, under the above conditions on September 16, 2020. He appeared before Your Honor on December 17, 2020 and was allowed to remain on supervision under the same conditions. He has been supervised by Pretrial Services in the Southern District of Texas since that time.

On January 29, 2021, the Assistant U.S. Attorney assigned to the defendant's case notified this officer of potential violations. On October 6th and 26th of 2020, the defendant appeared to be posting on the 2D Global website (the government provided screen shots indicating this). Also, according to the government, the defendant attempted to contact one of the victims twice by phone and once by text after his release in the Southern District of Texas (this allegedly took place in October of 2020).

This conduct is in clear violation of the above-stated conditions. The supervising officer in the Southern District of Texas has agreed to speak to the defendant about these violations and notify him of the Court's awareness through this report. At this point, the supervising officer is not requesting any formal action take place and that the defendant be allowed to continue on supervision with the warning that further violations could result in revocation of his release.

Respectfully submitted,

By
Annie Carr
U.S. Pretrial Services Officer
